1. Cut a hole in the box lid using a craft knife.

- lid. Use a piece of terry cut from a new inexpensive wash cloth or terry fabric from a fabric store.
5. Attach two tags from the tag pad to each other, white sides together, to create a heavier weight tag.
 6. Trim the rounded corners from the tag.
 7. Set a white eyelet into the tag.
 8. Decorate tag with tiles, die-cut cardstock piece, and layered floral accent.
 9. Tie tag to box top using white string, set aside.
 10. Cut thin strips from wave paper and wrap around box bottom.
