

Botanic Gardens Layout: Stamped Title and Journaling

DESIGNER: Catherine Cray Gelaude

Botanic Gardens are so beautiful -- creating a scrapbook page to highlight that beauty is easy when using clear stamp sets. These stamps make it easy and fun to create a title and add interest to your journaling without distracting from the natural beauty of your photos.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Stamp the title on two rectangular white cardstock panels. Note: the 'o' in Botanic has been replaced by a flower from the Flora Graphs set.

2. Using the vine from the Delicate Branches Set, stamp in front of 'Botanic' and in back of 'Gardens.'
3. Stamp the small flower from the Delicate Branches Set three times on each vine.
4. Ink the edges of the title panels with Celadon Ink and add a rhinestone to the 'O.' Set aside.
5. Stamp Flower, Asian Lantern, and Butterfly.
6. Heat set the inked images to set ink. Add handwritten journaling around each image and trim close. Adhere rhinestones as shown and ink the edges of each image.
7. Stamp partial flower on a white cardstock panel. Adhere rhinestone. Handwrite Haiku or other journaling. Ink the edges of the panel.
8. Adhere photos to 12 x 12 inch white cardstock base form a large square. Note how the white borders create a frame for each picture.
9. Adhere the title panels on the top and the left side as shown. Attach a dimensional floral accent to the upper left corner between the panels.
10. Add the images with the journaling information to the correlating photos.
